

Francesca Wright

Clients

California Comprehensive Center at WestEd – Assisted the California Department of Education in the development of tools for the monitoring and support of parental involvement in education.

California Department of Education – Facilitation of Family Area Network Board, advisors to the Title 1 Office of Planning and Partnership.

California Institute for Mental Health – Collaborative program planning with agencies representing mental health clients and their families.

California Latino Caucus Institute – Leadership program planning and coordination.

California Parent Information Center – Developed a directory of parent involvement resources.

Center for Community - School Partnerships, University of California Davis Curriculum and materials development and training in parental involvement and program evaluation.

Cities, Counties, and Schools Partnership – Compilation of local cross jurisdictional collaborations. Coordination of educational forums on childhood obesity prevention. Research, writing of case studies. Local and statewide policy development.

Community Prevention Institute – Design and facilitation of learning conversation and summary report on community based approaches for prevention with practitioners.

CompuMentor - Facilitation of team and cross team engagement during organizational transition.

First 5 Yolo – Program evaluation.

Local Government Commission – Compilation of joint use practices and projects that help decrease childhood obesity.

Solano County Children's Network – Audited case management system, for functionality, applications, and possible improvements. Developed detailed and summary reports.

University of Southern California Leadership Programs – Worked with the Director to deliver high quality leadership programs for the National Council of State Legislatures, California Institute for Mental Health, and the California Latino Caucus Institute.